

CLC Creative Learning Communities

www.skillsforme.eu

Objectives:

- * To innovate VET teaching by offering brand new creative learning systems
- * To support the acquisition of entrepreneurship and creativity in the VET system, through “learning by sharing” methods
- * To facilitate the inclusion of individuals from disadvantaged backgrounds in education and the labour market
- * To give concrete responses to needs highlighted in the European Years of Creativity and Innovation (2009) and Combating Poverty and Social Exclusion (2010)
- * To contribute to the development of the EQARF (European Quality Assurance Reference Framework)

Activities:

- * Through a researching phase, identification of the needs of VET trainers working with students that belong to “at risk” groups, in teaching of “creativity” as part of the “key competence n.7” (Entrepreneurship and sense of initiative)
- * Development of a “Creative Learning Community” prototype and test with VET trainers
- * Development of a final product, addressed to both VET learners and VET, trainers to provide them with learning and teaching tools for the Key Competence 7 acquisition through creative thinking methods, and which will encourage the foundation of other “CLC” in different fields

Follow the project IN ACTION

Results:

- * The CLC Manual is a guide for CLC toolbox, a digital platform containing various instruments of work and in-depth analysis on transversal competences en | ita
- * The Digital CLC Toolbox – answers the target groups’ needs arisen during the Project’s researching phase, through the provision of tools that VET trainers and learners can use to facilitate the acquisition of KC7 competences

Partners:

- * Coordinator: Die Berater (Austria)
- * Edward De Bono Foundation UK (United Kingdom)
- * Euromed Connect Coop. LTD (Malta)
- * Danmar Computers (Poland)

Date of project: 01/03/2011 - 28/02/2013
