

PAPYRUS

Professional Action and Practice for Youth Refugees and Asylum Seekers

Objectives:

- * To raise the standards of youth work around working with migrants and refugees
- * To raise and sustain quality youth work in Europe by fostering strategies to combat segregation and discrimination of displaced youth
- * To create an inclusive and target group-engaged methodology which will produce innovative open learning and networking opportunity output on a dedicated web platform
- * To innovate through consolidating knowledge and skills around working with these vulnerable young people

Activities:

- * Investigating interactive Youth Worker Context Case Studies
- * Holding innovative face to face and virtual training and generate peer-to-peer networks to enable the maximum number of youth workers (all types and from all sectors in Europe) to share and learn about working with refugees
- * Creating a methodology model for co-production of open resources around youth work best practice in Europe, which will provide a framework for future projects in this area
- * Creating innovative tools for youth workers and practitioners to enhance their capacity to deliver high quality youth work
