Cultural bridges fOr youthH Employability and incluSION

Objectives:

- * To stimulate creativity and innovation for youth workers in the EU context, to improve their key competences in their work in general and with migrants in particular
- * To promote new tools mixing non-formal education, ICT, Art and Creative Thinking to increase young migrants' employability and social inclusion
- * To increase awareness of youth workers on the current situations of young migrants in the EU countries regarding inclusion and employability
- * To inform participants on the new Erasmus+ Programme for 2014/2020, giving special focus on active inclusion of youth and migrants project themes

Activities:

From the 24th of May to the 1st of June 2015, 34 participants are involved in activities designed to empower youth workers to include ICT, creative tools and various forms of art, in order to boost the employability and active inclusion of migrants

Follow the project IN ACTION

Results:

- * The workshop about Forum theatre set up a performance which aimed to spread this artistic tool as a useful instrument to reach the target and make it aware about themes such as social inclusion, unemployment and intercultural dialogue
- * Participants involved in the workshop about Handmade Creative Thinking produced an attractive and alternative commercial by using recycled materials. Through this campaign they wanted to promote activities aimed to enhance employment opportunities for young people
- * Finally, during the workshop about New Media, a campaign about immigration was launched, titled iMIGRATION – I'm migration: posters, images, videos as well as a page on tumblr were created, and the facebook page has already exceeded 1000 likes. Many participants decided to continue the work started in Baida and are still supporting this campaign. Watch the video and find more about iMIGRATION on the official Facebook page
