

YoMiWoE

Newsletters on young migrant women, their rights and the realization of those rights in European countries

Objectives:

- * To develop policy and practical responses to situations of discrimination and intolerance affecting youth migrants women (racism, xenophobia and misogyny)
- * To enhance the participation of youth migrants women and to ensure appropriate follow up to the recommendation on the promotion of the participation of minority youth
- * To foster equal opportunities for young migrants women by providing exchange of knowledge and practice and by supporting the development of a sense of solidarity
- * To further explore responses to the challenges to have access to employment of young women migrants
- * To defend the dignity of migrants, legally or illegally arrived and the solidarity between European citizens

Activities:

Publication of 3 newsletters on issues regarding young migrant women in Europe:

- * Labour conditions
- * Trafficking and smuggling
- * Refugees and asylum seekers

Results:

- * Newsletter – Asylum seekers and refugees
- * Newsletter – Trafficking and Smuggling
- * Newsletter - Labour

Partners:

- * Coordinator: CESIE – European Centre of Studies and Initiatives (Italy)
- * BNCYTP Bulgarian Network For The Prevention Of Trafficking In Children And Young People (Bulgaria)
- * REDE- The Portuguese Network of Young People for Gender Equality (Portugal)
- * EMNYTP- Euromed Network for Youth Trafficking Prevention (Greece)

Date of project: 01/01/2009 - 20/06/2009

Institution of reference: European Youth Foundation- Council of Europe

Contact:

CESIE: angela.martinez@cesie.org

This project has been funded with support from the Council of Europe.

This publication [communication] reflects the views only of the author, and the Council of Europe cannot be held responsible for any use which may be made of the information contained therein.