

Inventing the future in Ballarò Training Course in Childcare and Job placement

www.inventareballaro.it

Objectives:

- * To develop specific professional skills leading to vocational integration
- * To enable local and immigrant girls/women to re-enter the education system and to build on competences that can be employed in the local labour context
- * To create conditions enabling the target group to develop personal “skills” and to “realize life plans they can give a value to” by again enjoying learning, possibly planning to go back to regular educational courses so to gain official high school qualifications
- * To provide competencies on parenthood and support the concept of family
- * To promote intercultural dialogue and mutual understanding among different cultures
- * To support intergenerational relationships (youth and adults)
- * To enhance ‘Albergheria’ (project’s focus district area)

Activities:

- * Vocational training course
- * Internship
- * Creation of a multi-purpose centre which includes baby parking, games room and after-school classes
- * Stage
- * Workshops for the community
