

EU-CARES EUropean Collective nArratives for Reconciliation trauma hEaling through youth engagement and Storytelling

Newsletter 2

Hello Palermo.

35 amazing young people, activists, youth workers, storytellers and experts on innovative storytelling methods for reconciliation from Bosnia, Belgium, Italy, Albania, Serbia, Poland and Montenegro from gathered from February 1st to 6th in Palermo for EUCARES – international training.

The week was dedicated to testing storytelling techniques identified in the research phase. Trauma, social inclusion, and the healing process topics were addressed through creative workshops including art, theatre, photography, exchange.

During the training we have tested the e-Toolkit with Operational Curriculum

EU-CARES with the participants who gave us their valuable inputs and perspectives. E- Toolkit will be a database of resources, tips and guidance for youth workers and youth organizations on how to apply the method of storytelling and the different techniques for reconciliation, conflict transformation and social integration.

We will let you know when it is done.

The next phase is implementation of local workshops in 7 countries in Europe.

Stay tuned!
