

GET POLITICAL

Get Political kick-off in Porto

The get political project officially took off in beautiful Porto, Portugal! Hosted by RightChallenge, the event brought together partners from across Europe to set the stage for an exciting journey toward fostering political literacy and active youth participation.

A Dynamic Start

Over two days, participants dove into the heart of the project, discussing everything from management strategies to creative ways of enhancing youth political literacy. We explored how to make political knowledge more accessible and how to keep the momentum going through effective communication and thoughtful dissemination.
